

You are invited to visit our web site, download and read the recent publications of the Samuel Neaman Institute. You may also be interested in a seminar on Biosensors to be held on January 22, 2009.

New Publications

Israel 2008 – Vision and Strategy for Economy and Society in a Global World

The report was presented to the Prime Minister at a Government meeting, and received unanimous support.

Proceedings of the International Conference: "Privatization in Higher Education" January 7-8 2008

The aim was to see how countries around the world cope with this issue and consequently debate and suggest how Israel should expand its Higher Education System

Adaptation Processes and Consumer Behavior Under Uncertain Security Conditions

A new study in SNI's ECONOMICS OF NATIONAL SECURITY PROGRAM (ENS)

National Environmental Priorities of Israel – Water Issues in Israel – summer 2008

The paper unfolds general information on the water balance of Israel in the last decade.

All SNI publications can be downloaded from the website, To view publication list - Click here

Coming Events

S. Neaman Institute and BioNorth initiative are pleased to invite you to a seminar on

BioSensors 22 January 2009

The seminar's goal is to bring together leading scientists from the academy with R&D engineers and managers from industry, start-ups and research institutes

For more details and registration

Previous events...

Press Releases

Will economy block the sun?

11.1.2009

Calling for the rescue of higher education

31.12.2008

International earthquake

31.12.2008

More press items...